LANGUAGE SKILLS      Fluent in English, Portuguese and Spanish.

PROFESSIONAL OBJECTIVES      My main skillset lies within research, planning, marketing and customer service. I thrive to improve on these with each new career choice.
I am a fast problem solver and have an ability to learn new skills in a short period of time as proven by having successfully moved to multiple countries to live, work and study. I am relentlessly resourceful and I am currently learning how to code, as I see technology been at the centre of interesting new developments within my chosen areas of interest.
