INNOVATIVE STARTUPS

The JiTT apps by iClio. They are audio guides with a difference, all the content is researched before writing the scripts. There is always inaccurate information passed on to tourists when visiting a city or country and they are tackling this. www.iclio.net

The Ticket Fairy is another startup which I believe will be big in the next year. They are a ticket sales, marketing and rewards company for concerts, festivals and art events. We need another company in the world that will compete with Ticketmaster and not charge us high booking fees. www.theticketfairy.com

Umooove is another startup which we should keep looking out for in 2015. They created a face and eye interaction technology which can help kids and adults with various types of concentration problems and extreme physical limitations. www.umooove.me

For me these are the startups that will continue to impact in 2015.

PROFESSIONAL OBJECTIVES

My main skillset lies within research, planning, marketing and customer service. I thrive to improve on these with each new career choice.

My motto in life is that there is always a solution to any problem, "this can't be done" does not exist.

I am a fast problem solver and have an ability to learn new skills in a short period of time as proven by having successfully moved to multiple countries to live, work and study. I am relentlessly resourceful and I am currently learning how to code, as I see technology being at the centre of interesting new developments within my chosen areas of interest.

I am a very communicative person and like teamwork but also work well alone, as you can see in my experience below.
